Dedication

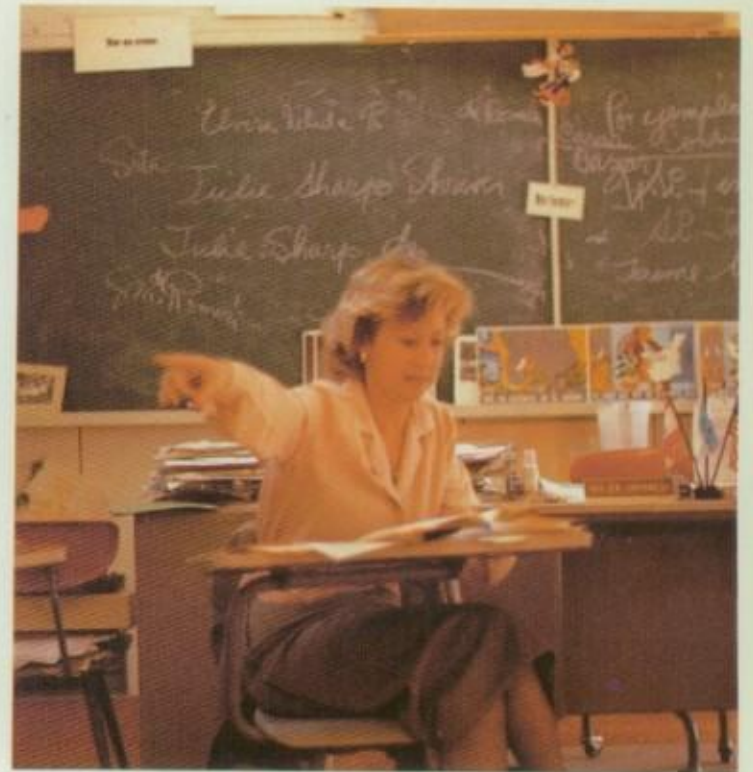

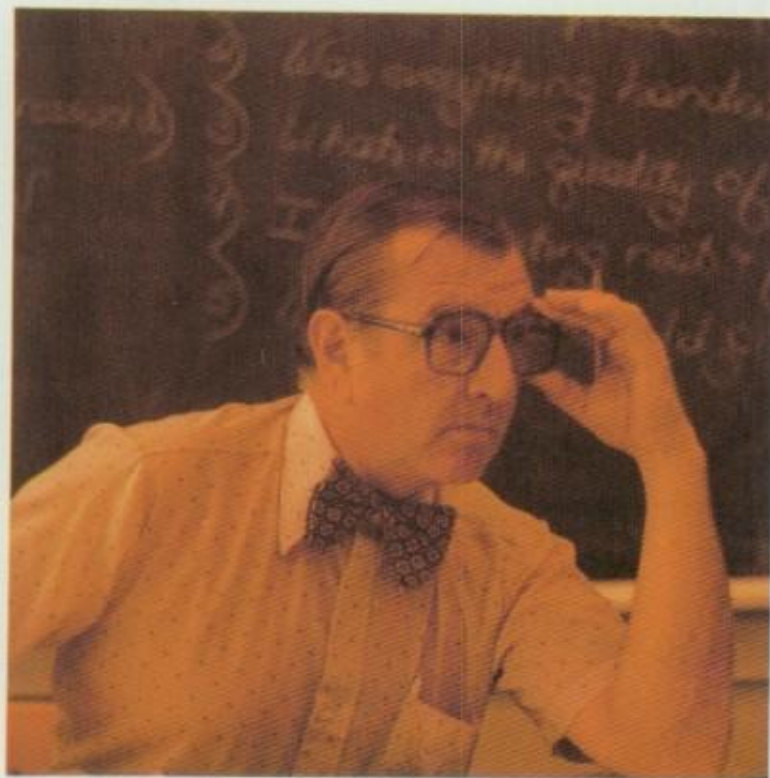

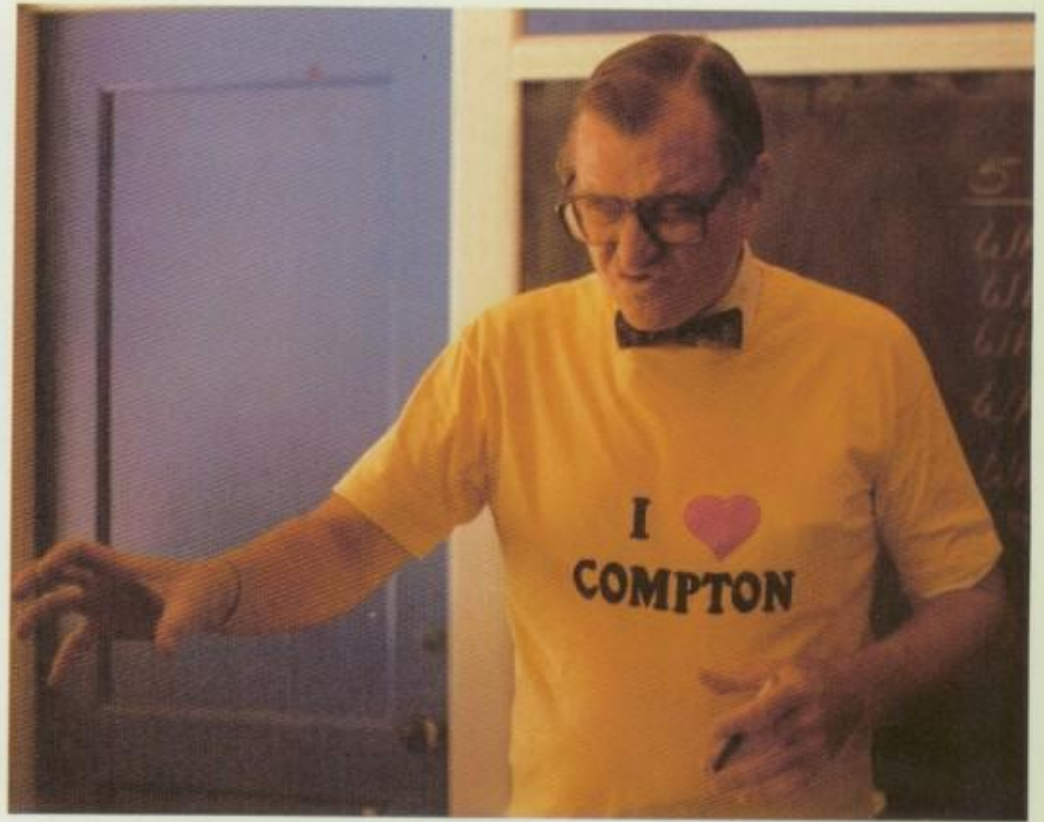

As well as being a superior teacher, John Fahy is a special person. Whether he is singing lead tenor, officiating swim meets, or rooting on the Dolphins, John Fahy has a smile on his face. His warmth and sincerity have been truly uplifting to our class.

Dragon Lady always manages to make her presence felt, whether it be at Snack Shack or Carnival. Working at assorted school functions, taking kids to Europe every year, and leaving her door open are Shanny's trademarks. Her way of giving herself to us for nothing. What I'm trying to say is : she cares.

Thus, it is with utmost pride and affection that we, the class of 1980, dedicate our yearbook to John Fahy and Karen Stephens.

Senior Appreciation

The class of 1980 wishes to express their thanks and appreciation to the following people:

Theme

Chadwick's uniqueness lies in the fact that it is small enough so that everyone can find their own niche and is allowed to be themselves. Yet this individuality doesn't stand in the way of the school's functioning as a whole. Chadwick exists as a living community because of the people here and their willingness to work for the school as a whole.

What does a Saturn Creature look like?

Breath Helium to weigh less so they can move around easier.

Big Brain
Because it seems more difficult to survive on Saturn.

Big eyes
Because Saturn is Far From the sun so it is dark.

Skin - would be be like bark of a tree because it's cold.

Arms - are green like a plant.

Big Feet
because gravity is greater

THE LAKE ISLE OF INNISFREE

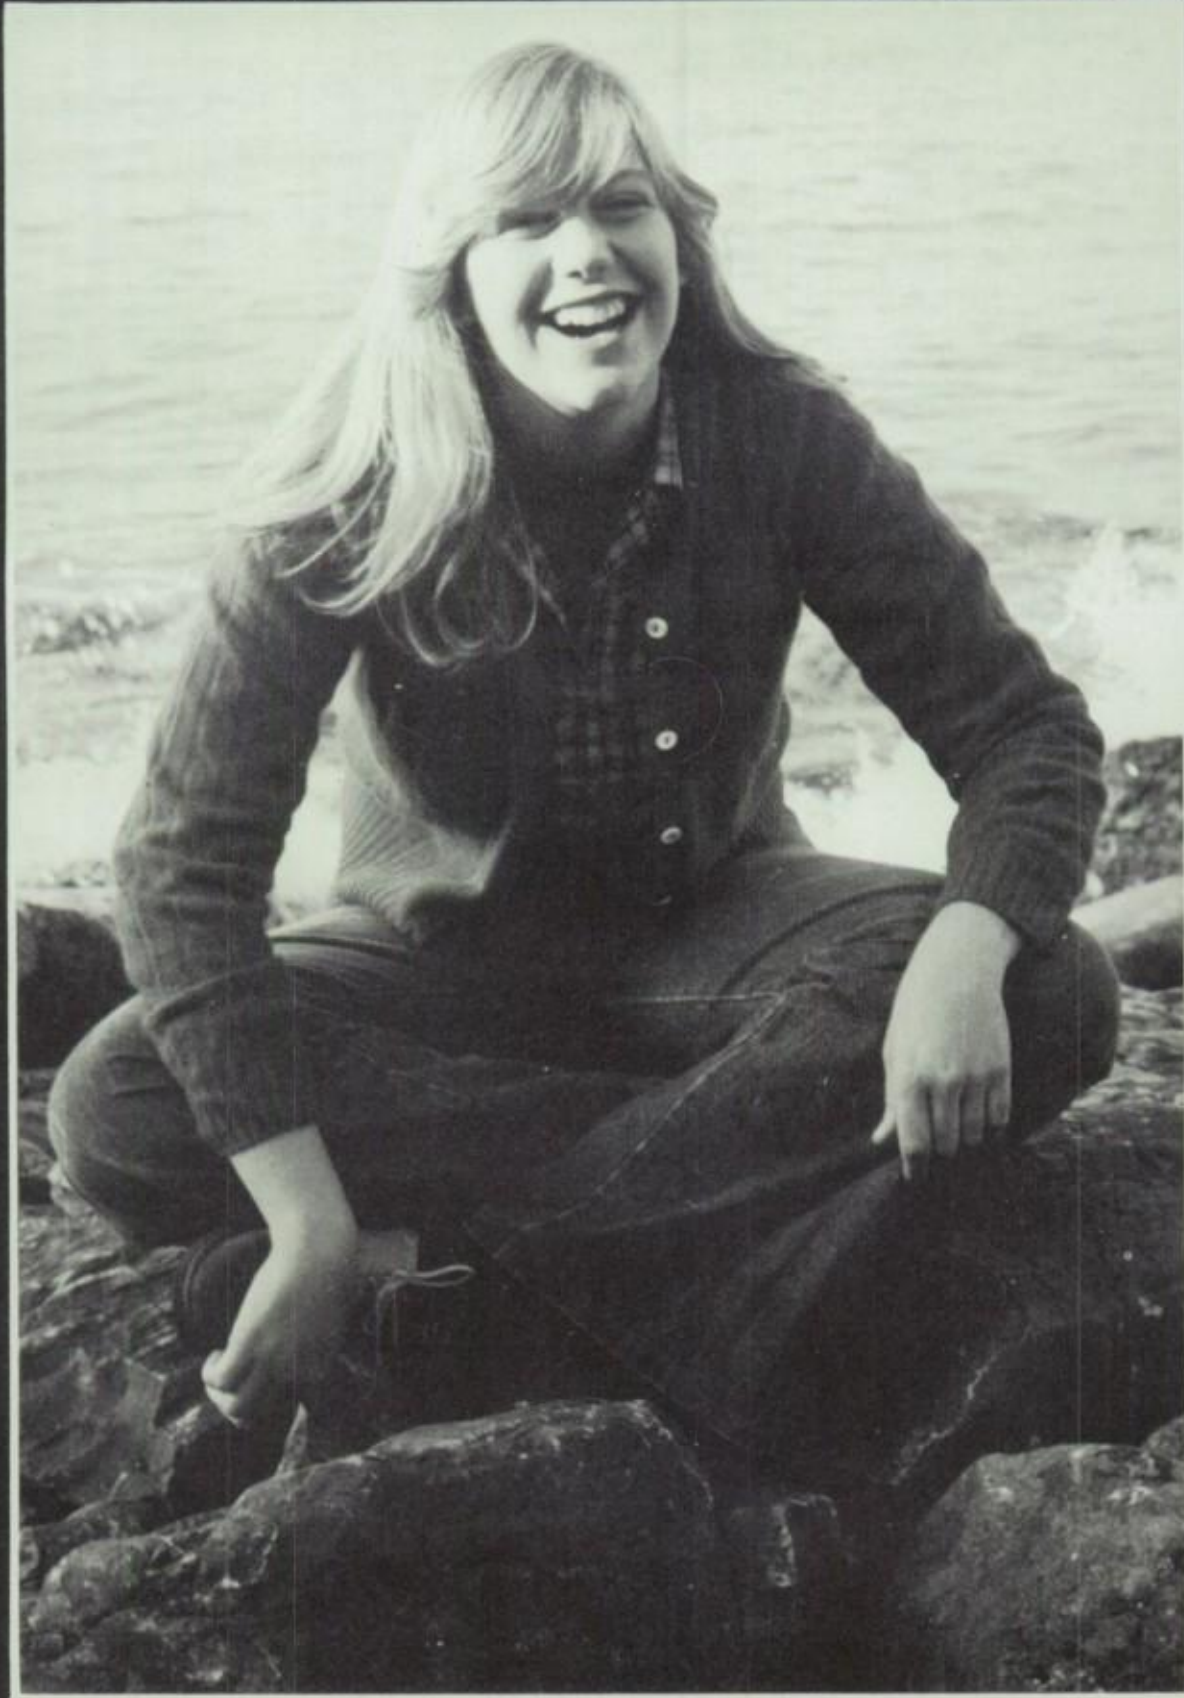

I will arise and go now, and go to Innisfree,
And a small cabin build there, of clay and wattles made:
Nine bean-rows will I have there, a hive for the honey-bee,
And live alone in the bee-loud glade.

And I shall have some place there, for peace comes dropping slow,
Dropping from the veils of the morning to where the cricket sings:
There midnight's all a glimmer, and noon a purple glow,
And evening full of the linnet's wings.

I will arise and go now, for always night and day
I hear lake water lapping with low sounds by the shore;
While I stand on the roadway, or on the pavements grey,
I hear it in the deep heart's core.

Leaves are falling all around Its time I was on my way
But still I'm much obliged For such a pleasant stay but now its time for me to go
The autumn moon lights my way . . .
Sometimes I grow so tired
But I know one thing I gotta do RAMBLE ON — now is the time the time is now
To sing my song
—on my way
I've been this way 10 years to the day Time has come to be gone I've just got to RAMBLE ON . . .

Then as it was Then again it will be
And though the course may change sometimes rivers always reach

Instead of saying Onward! or Upward! say Inward! Concentrate your being so that you radiate; allow yourself to be filled so that your overflow, conserving always the spring and the source. Withdraw into yourself in order to give yourself to others entire and undivided. "I give all that I have," says the generous man. "I give all that I am," says the hero. "I give my very self," says the saint; you must say it with him, and, as you give yourself, "I give the entire universe along with myself". to do this, you must make yourself the universe, searching for it within. Inward!

LESLIE L. HORIKAWA

To pass beyond is what I seek, I fear that I may be too weak
And those are few who've seen it through to glimpse the other side, The promised land is waiting like a maiden that is soon to be a bride The moment is a masterpiece, the weight of indecisions in the air It's standing there, the symbol and the sum of all that's me It's just a travesty, towering, blocking out the light and blinding me
I want to see
Kansas

Well I walk the road of life among the

Beyond the second phase Jumping to the third what will it bring?
Challenges, decisions,

"Slow me down, Lord!
Ease the pounding of my heart
By the quieting of my mind.
Steady my harried pace
With a vision of the eternal reach of time.
Give,
Amidst the confusion of my day,
The calmness of the everlasting hills.
Break the tensions of my nerves
With the soothing music of the singing streams
That live in my memory.
Help me to know
The magical restoring power of sleep.
Teach me the art Of taking minute vacations of slowing down
To look at a flower;
To chat with an old friend or make a new one;
To pat a stray dog;
To watch a spider build a web:
To smile at a child;
Or to read a few lines from a good book.
Remind me each day

That the race is not always to the swift;
That there is more to life than increasing its speed.
Let me look upward
Into the branches of the towering oak
And know that it grew great and strong
Because it grew slowly and well.
Slow me down, Lord
And inspire me to send my roots deep Into the soil of life's enduring values
That I may grow toward the stars
Of my greater destiny."

Till I learned about livin' alone
I found other things to keep my

"It is not the critic who counts, not the man who points out how the strong man stumbled or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood, who strives valiantly, who errs and comes short again and again, who knows the great enthusiasm, the great devotions, and spends himself in a worthy cause, who at the best know in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat." — Theodore Roosevelt

A detailed black and white illustration of a grapevine border. The vine starts at the top, arches over the text, and then descends on both sides to form a large 'L' shape around the central crest. The vine is covered in large, detailed leaves and several clusters of grapes. The entire design is enclosed within a thin rectangular frame.

The Finn Family

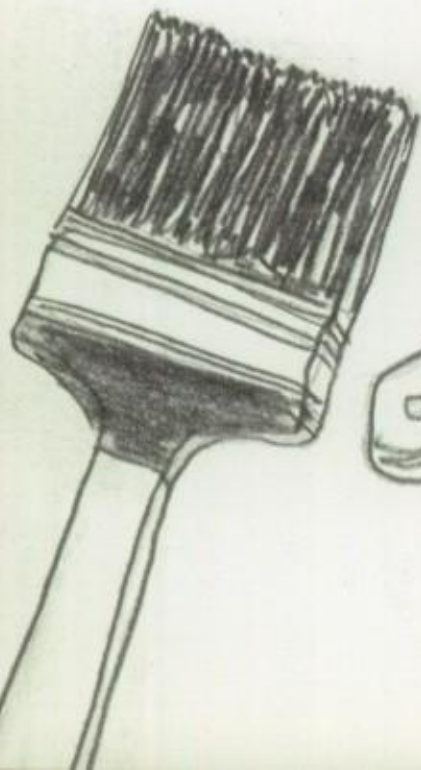

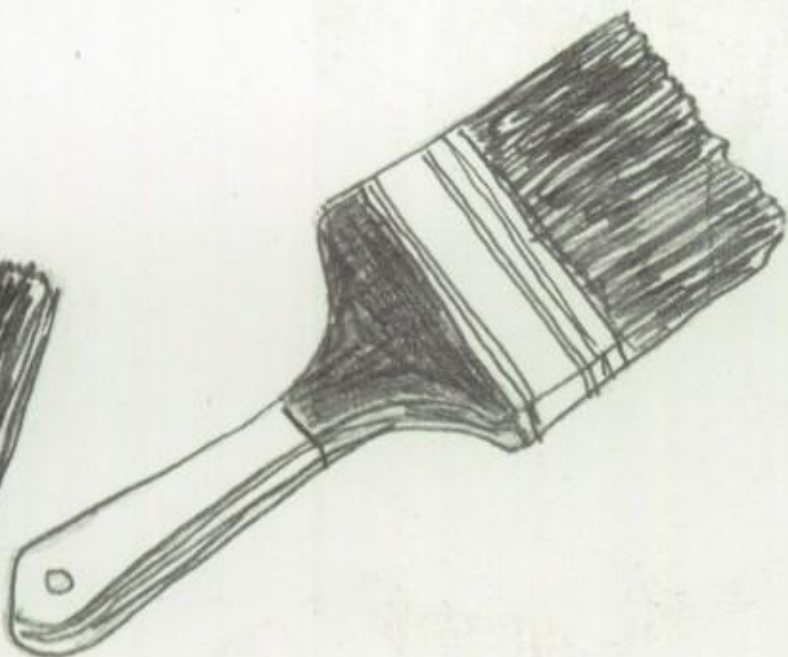

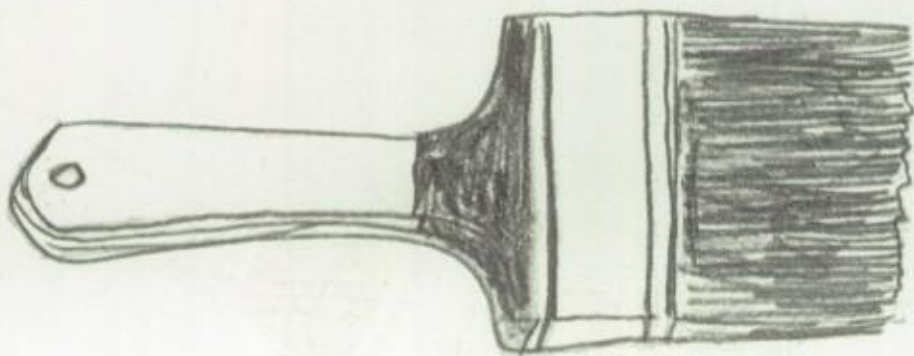

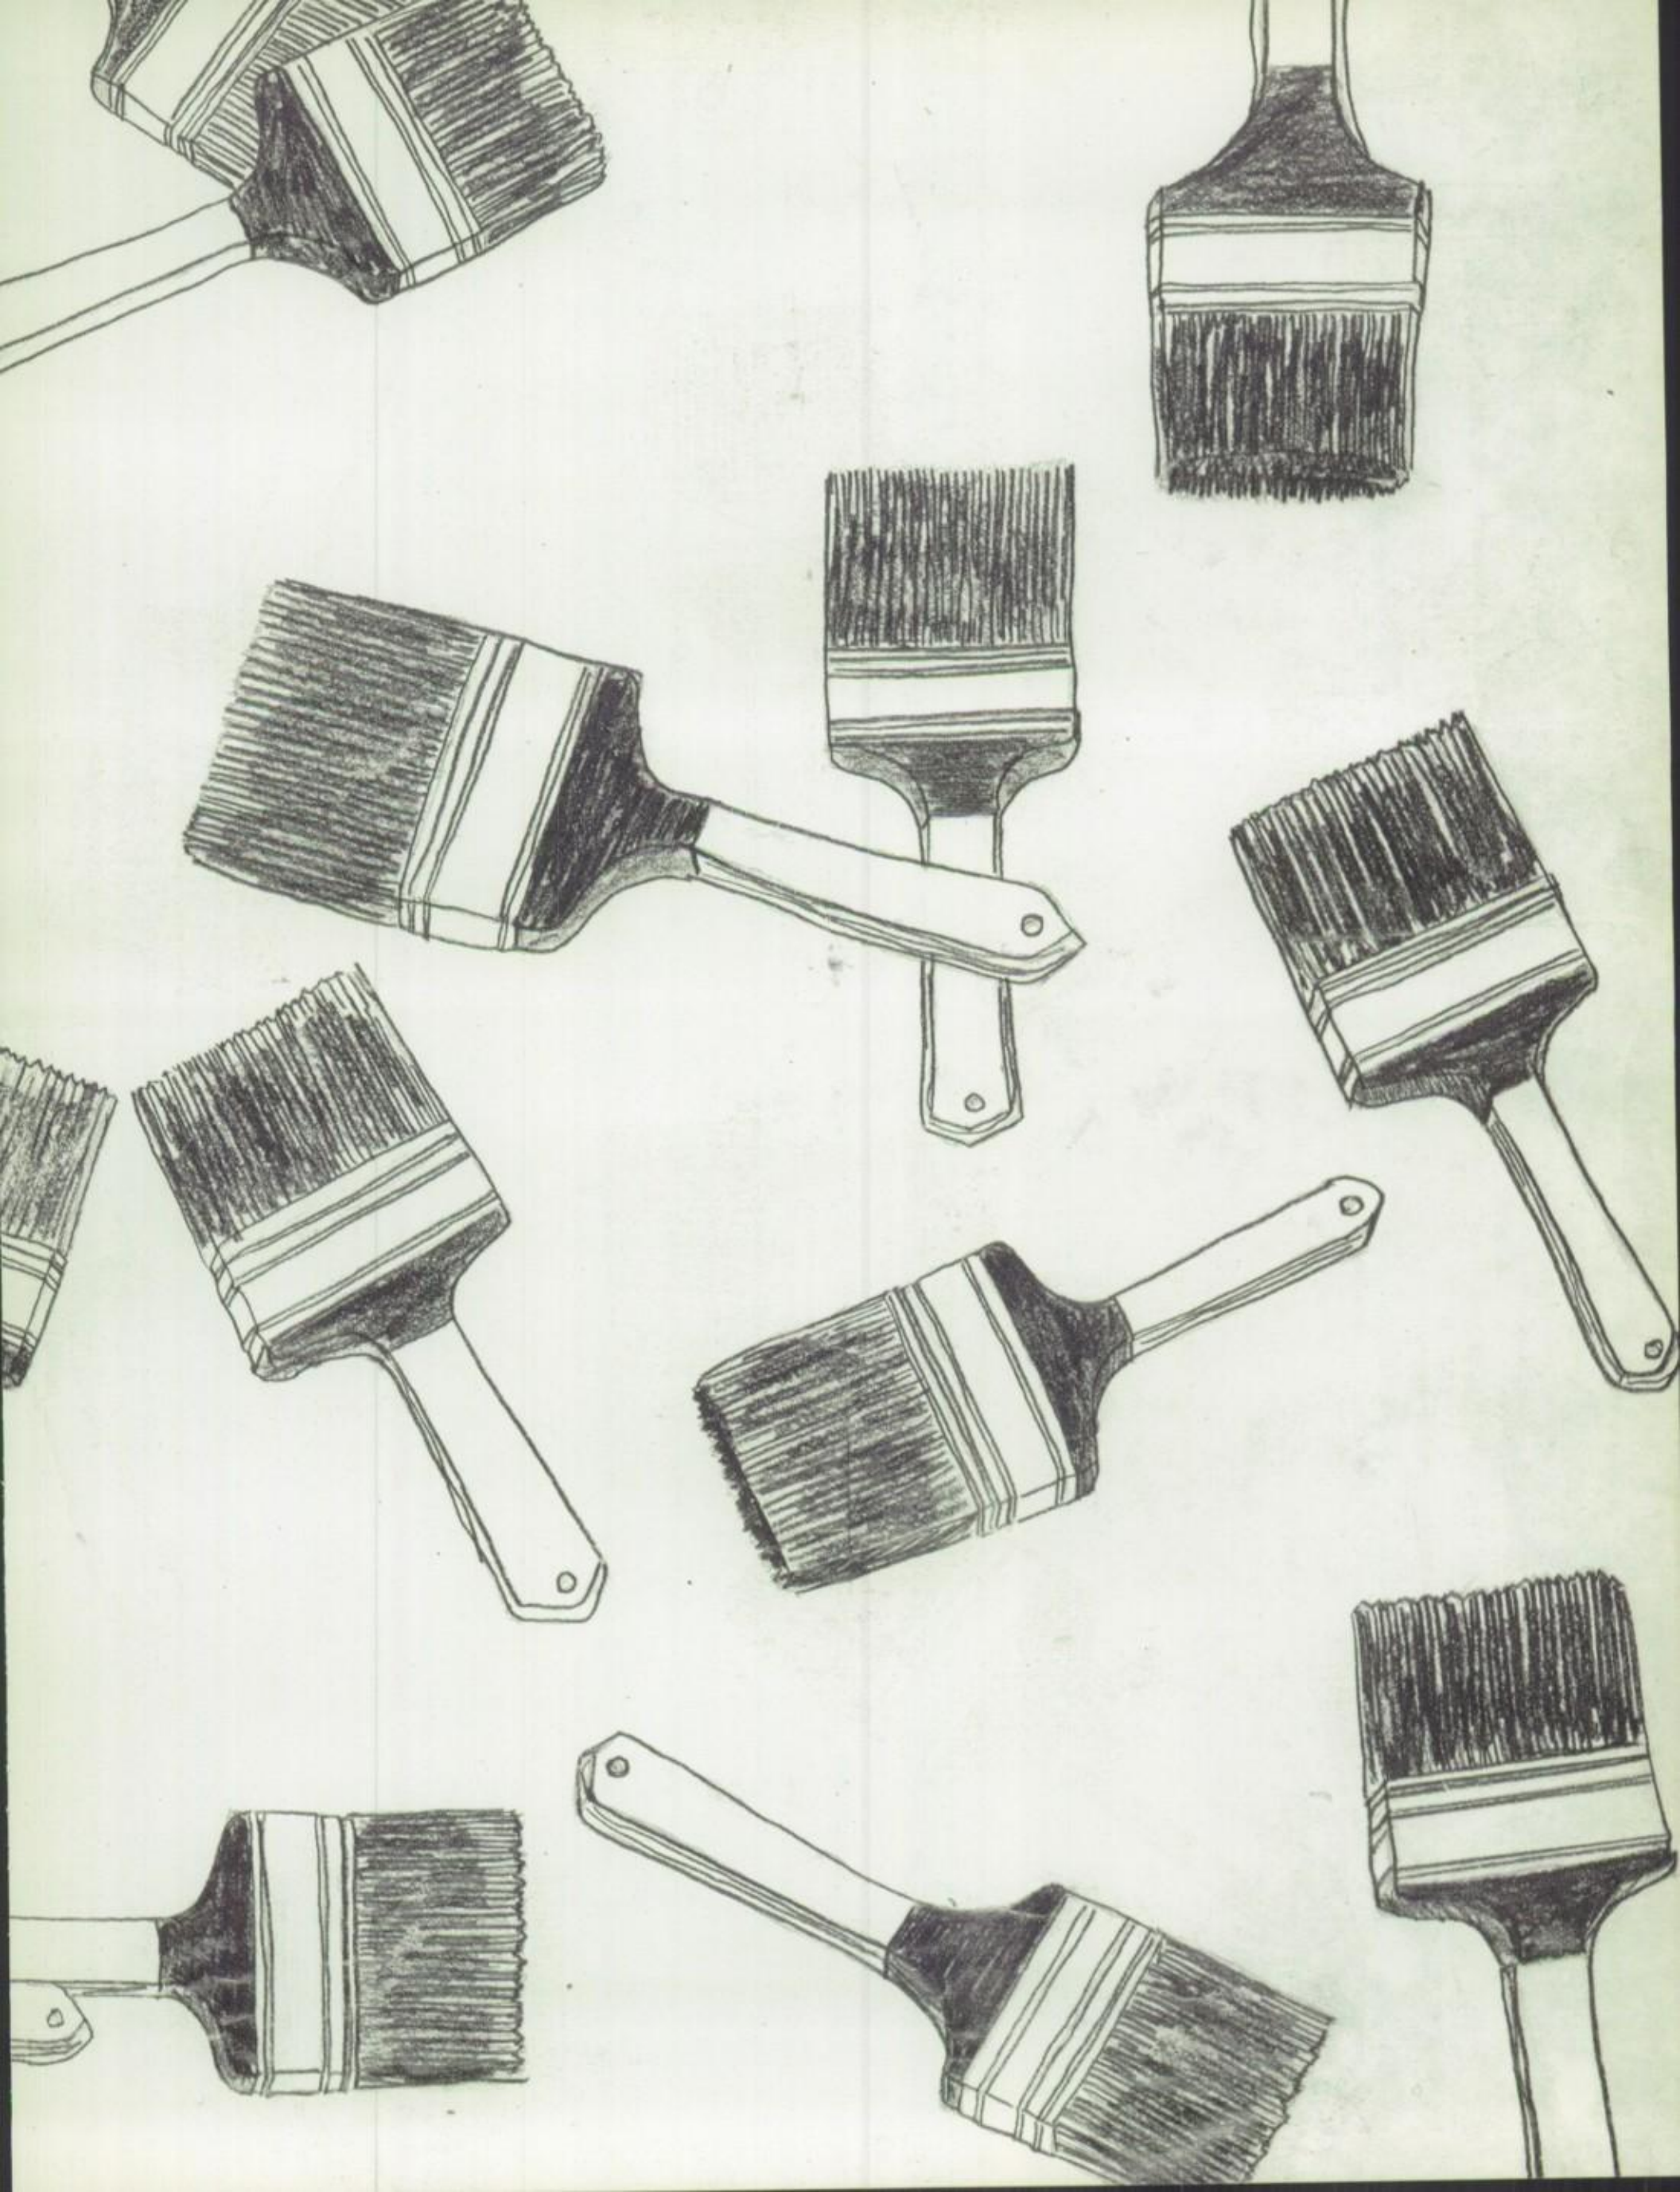

We would like to thank both Mr. Simon and Mr. Fahey for their enthusiasm in AREAS RANGING from sporting events to math exams. Both ARE excellent teachers and have given their time freely to the Chadwick community. We hope that they will find as much appreciation for their dedication in the future as they have found here.

With Love,

Warning: This message was written, produced and sponsored by those who spent twelve hours in the yearbook room the night before the last deadline.

The Yearbook Staff would like to sincerely thank the following people:

1. Those who so kindly redecorated our office with glue.
2. Those who designed this building to provide recreational water sports, ideal conditions for Basidiomycetes and breeding grounds for typhoid, Malaria, and Bubonic Plague.
3. Those who habitually persist to eat couch stuffing, to make yearbooks fly and to reorganize our library and photo filing systems.
4. Those who unlocked our doors to screaming hoards who treated our office with so much respect.
5. The yearbook staff who so enthusiastically met all deadlines, obligations and weekend party sessions.

ATTENTION ALL PARTIES INTERESTED IN PARTICIPATING IN THE 1981 YEAR-BOOK

Qualifications:

1. Mind-cropper coordination.
2. Lack of olfactory nerves.
3. Affinity towards insects.
4. Non-diabetic (good doughnut eater).
5. Able to sleep while working on layout.
6. Sufficently ambidextrous to work on Quad-Pak with left hand, A.P. History with right hand, Analysis with left foot and Physiology with right foot.

PLEASE CONTACT MR. McBEAN R.I.P.

God Bless his Soul

Sincerely,

P.S. The ants would like to thank those who so generously left cookies, Ding Dongs, oranges, apples, sandwiches and smashed brownies laying around the yearbook office so they could survive the winter.

But these are human things,
 The point of it all is Out There, a little beyond that last rise you can just barely see, hazy and purple on the sky.
 These pages are windows,
 And windows are to see through.

"If YOU screw up you're on your own!"

"Hey, we can't get everything in."

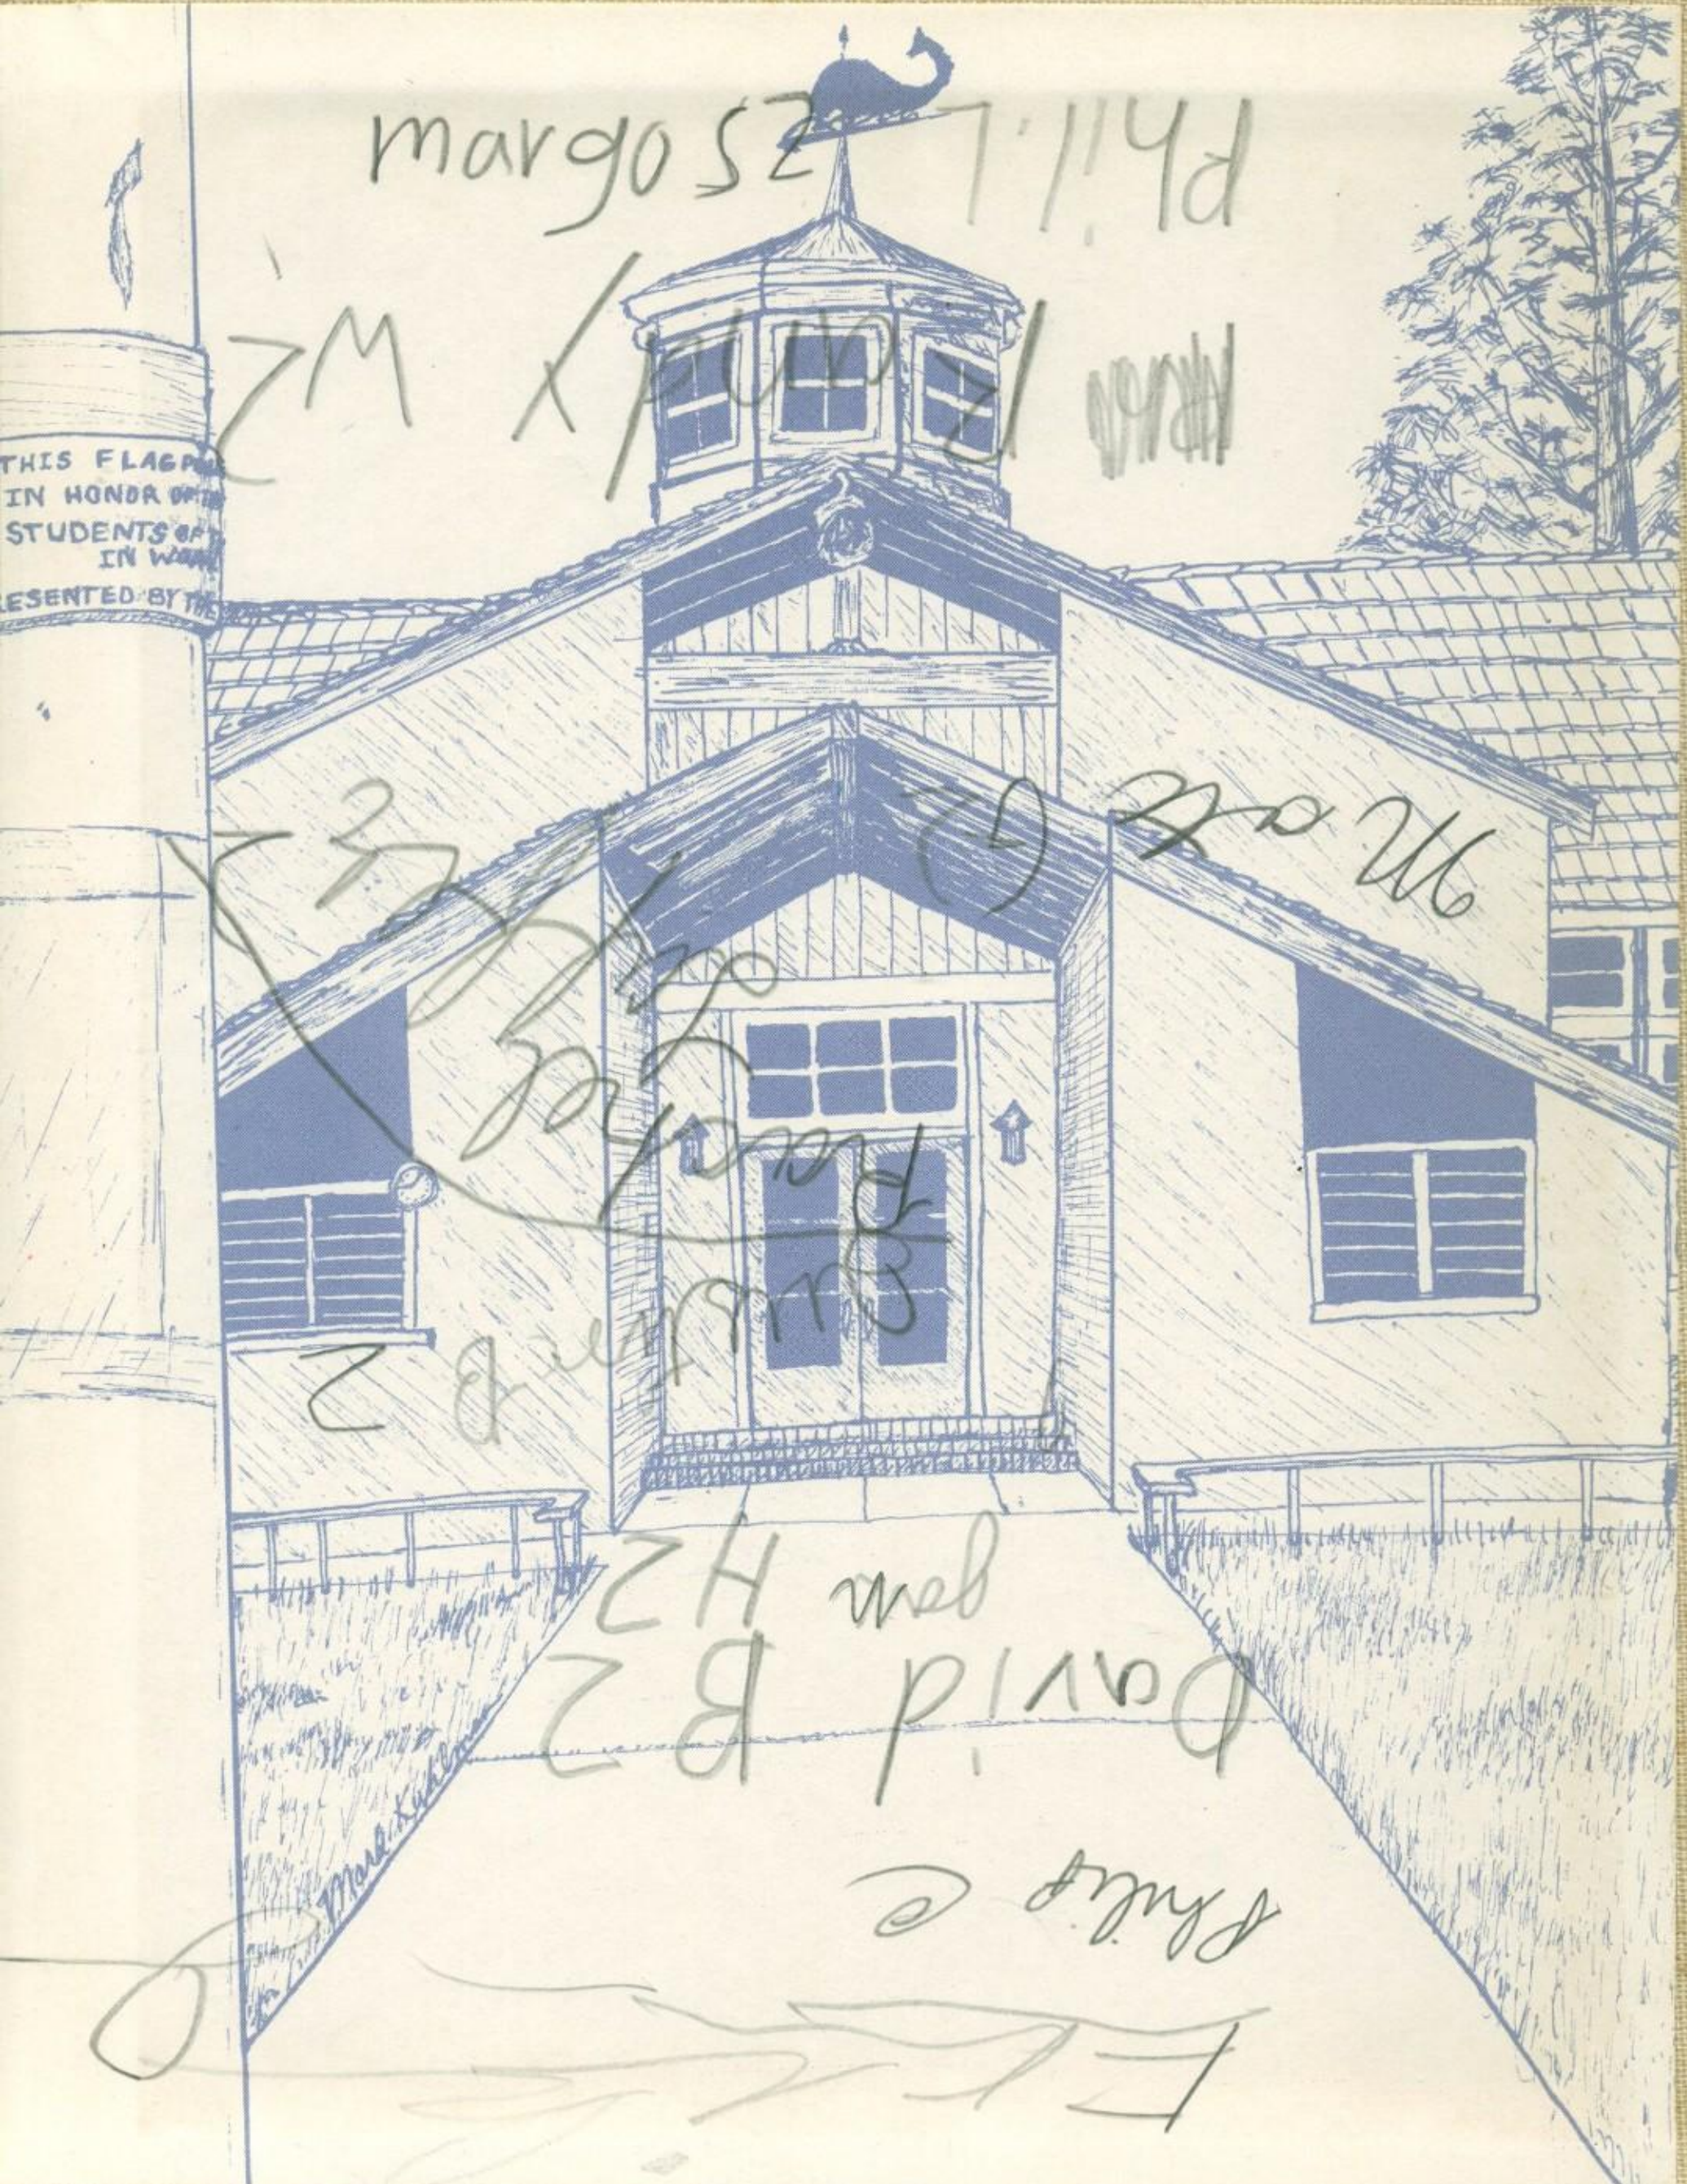

"With Quad-Paks like this, you are worried about little green spots?"

"Bought a new Motoyoshi 600, it's a fine motorcycle."

Special thanks to Doc Stephens (and his Wang), Brian McBean, and Steve Eddy for their support and kindness.
